

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

The Hamlin athletic teams have been right on the edge of district titles all year but have seen them slip away just at the last minute. But it seems they are going to get another chance at one of the titles anyway. The Piperettes lost their final two games and looked to be out of the race until Winters came up with a strong finish to throw the girls race into a three-way tie.

The girls will meet Winters again Friday night in Cooper gym with the winner taking the district title and the right to play Alpine in the first round of the playoffs.

Let's hope that our girls can break this "always a bridesmaid but never a bride" jinx that seems to be hanging over us this year. Let's all go out and back the girls and help bring home the district championship.

It was not until Tuesday that we found out that Thursday was a postal holiday and because of this many of you did not get your paper until Friday morning. We can only apologize for this — had we realized this earlier we would have made plans to come out on Wednesday.

On regular holidays that fall on Thursday we make plans ahead of time to get the papers in the post office on Tuesday night so that everyone will get their papers on time. But we just do not think of Washington's birthday as being a holiday.

Although the post office and banks have been taking this holiday for years we somehow question the wisdom of it. Since the post office is a public service institution it would seem to us that they should only take the regular business holidays that are recognized by everyone.

As the postage rates keep getting higher and higher we tend to expect better service and in many ways we get it through sectional centers, zip codes and the like but it would seem to us that all of the petty holidays could be eliminated so that there would not be an interruption of service right in the middle of the week. Too much of the nation's business is transacted by mail for us to be able to afford the luxury of needless holidays.

But please do not go over to the post office and jump on Postmaster Perry Sparks and his crew because they do not decide such matters as this and can not do anything about it.

The BCD came up with another good banquet last Friday night and we were quite pleased with the crowd. There seemed to be less out-of-town guests this year and more homefolks, which is good.

Like a lot of people, we are sure, we were wondering what a football coach would come up with to talk about to a community banquet and were favorably impressed with the job Coach Merrill Green did. The man is very impressive and it is not hard to see why he has been able to come up with the teams he has at Cooper.

This week is FFA Week in Texas and elsewhere in this issue we are carrying a number of pictures and information about the local chapter. The Hamlin chapter is one of the stronger ones in this area, thanks to the fine leadership of T. C. Blankinship and Milburn Wink. Both of these men spent many hours working with our local boys and do a fine job.

While we tend to think of farming as a sick industry with less people getting involved in it all of the time, it is surprising to learn that this is not necessarily true.

When you add all of the related industries to the actual farming and ranching you come up with a lot of jobs.

In fact, of the vocational agriculture students in Texas last year that graduated from high school and went to work, a survey showed that over 60 percent are now in full-time farming or in agricultural related occupations. Over forty per cent of this number are in full-time farming.

We failed to give Hamlin High student Bill Johnson credit for the three fine basketball pictures in last week's Herald. Bill has been taking pictures for two or three years now as a hobby and is doing an excellent job.

AT ANNUAL BANQUET — New BCD President Henry Albritton, right, talks with the retiring president, Marvin Carlton, and the speaker, Merrill Green, at the annual banquet Friday evening in the high school gymnasium.

Large Crowd Hears Merrill Green Friday

In his closing remarks, Merrill Green, speaker for the annual Board of Community Development Banquet, challenged Hamlinites to "Make this a place for young people to grow mentally, physically and spiritually, a place where young people can dream dreams and the dreams can come true, a place where older people may enjoy the fruits of their labors."

Green, head coach at Cooper High School, in speaking to the 231 guests present, referred to the Cooper football team frequently.

He opened his remarks with "I don't know why I'm speaking unless you have a low budget. I'm as out of place as Phyllis Diller at a beauty convention." "I guess I'll give my usual speech," continued Green. "I usually talk about crossing the goal line." "Now I've learned that you're supposed to kick a field goal on occasion too," said Green.

Three In Race For School Posts

Raymond E. Seifres filed Feb. 15 for the position on the Hamlin Board of Education now held by Joe Hudspeth, who did not seek re-election.

Seifres and Jackie Williams were the only school board candidates, as of Tuesday noon. Williams is seeking re-election. He was appointed to fill an unexpired term.

Sigmund Stovall filed Wednesday morning.

Anyone who wishes to file may get the necessary forms at the office of the superintendent at Hamlin High School.

First Methodists Set Family Night

Mrs. E. T. Pittard of Anson will show slides and speak of her travels in Japan here Wednesday night, Feb. 28, at 7 in the Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church. The program will climax the Family Night covered dish supper.

The program will serve as the church-wide study on Japan. The visitor, an enthusiastic speaker, has been to Japan several times.

WOUNDED IN VIETNAM — Marine Private First Class Daniel M. Contreras relaxes at the hospital in Yokohama, Japan, after receiving a foot injury in Vietnam. He was serving with the Second Battalion, Third Marine Division, in South Vietnam. He arrived in San Antonio Monday and called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Trine L. Contreras, from there. He was due to go to a naval hospital in Corpus Christi Tuesday. Details of the injury had not been learned by the parents Tuesday.

Piperettes to Play Winters for Title

The Hamlin Piperettes will meet the Winters Blizzardettes Friday night in Abilene at 7:30 in Cooper High School Gym, 3639 Sayles in a game that will decide the winner of District 5-AA. The winner of this game will meet Alpine of District 6-AA in the first round of the playoffs.

Winters defeated Anson last Friday night, 59-51, to throw the race into a three-way tie between Anson, Winters and Hamlin. Dan Truelove, Piperette coach drew a bye on the playoff and Winters and Anson played Tuesday night in Abilene with Winters winning, 50-45.

Winters won the toss and will be the home team.

In a practice game played here Monday night, the Piperettes lost a one-point decision to Rochester, 60-59. Linda Bailey poured in 46 points in he losing effort. The entire game was a see-saw affair with neither team being able to mount a decisive lead.

HOWARD'S RESTOCKING—

Frank's Department Store Reopens Today

Frank's Department Store which received smoke damage during the Christmas Eve fire that destroyed three Hamlin businesses on the west side of South Central is re-opening today (Thursday) with a storewide removal sale.

The store owner-managers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sonnenburg, and the employees have been busy for several days getting the store ready for the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonnenburg apologized for the inconvenience that the store being closed had caused their customers. They said also that they appreciated the patience of the people of Hamlin and the trade territory during this time and are anticipating serving them again.

Following the sale the store will be re-stocked completely with new merchandise, the Sonnenburgs said.

Howard Drug Co., also impaired by the effects of the fire, is expecting to have 50 to 60 per cent of the merchandise in the front re-stocked by the weekend and have the fountain in operation.

The drug company has been filling prescription orders since the fire, but all merchandise in the retail section was removed and is being re-stocked. While structural damage to the building was being repaired, additional remodeling was done to the business, including carpeting and enlarging the retail and fountain area and installation of new booths.

Winn's Stores, one of the businesses destroyed, has announced plans to rebuild but this work has been held up by the snow, rain, and freezing weather.

Other buildings lost to the fire were Western Auto and Irvine Hardware. Owners of these sites have not announced plans.

Pancake Feed Postponed Until Friday, Mar. 1

The annual pancake supper held by the Hamlin Lions Club originally planned for Friday night has been postponed until Mar. 1, following a meeting of the board of directors Tuesday. The supper was postponed because of several conflicts.

Ellis West is chairman. Tickets being sold will be honored on Mar. 1.

Cold Front Hits Wednesday

Springlike weather returned briefly Tuesday but was soon pushed out by a cold front early Wednesday morning. A trace of moisture and freezing temperatures combined to put an icy glaze on automobiles. Some sleet fell during the morning. The ground, still muddy from snow and rain last week was frozen, prolonging the drying out process.

Rain since last reported was recorded as follows: Feb. 15, tr.; Feb. 17, tr.; Feb. 18, .02; Feb. 19, .08. Total for the year is 4.45 with 3.31 being recorded in January and 1.14 this month.

'Farming Frontiers '68' Feature of Program Planned Here Monday

Mrs. James Eddie Jay Directs Literary Club Program Friday

The home life program for the Woman's Literary Club, Planting the Seeds of Home Life in Order to Cultivate a Better Society, was presented in symposium Friday in the home of Mrs. Loyd Burkhardt.

Mrs. James Eddie Jay, program director, introduced the program participants and concluded the presentation with an open discussion.

Mrs. Donald Young gave "Home" by Edgar A. Guest which reiterated "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make a home."

Mrs. Jackie Williams discussed home and society noting that the home is more significant than any other organization or any other social group in all of human society. She also brought out that it is the basic unit of human life which God established to be the means of propagating the human race and to be for all time the heart of society.

In discussing activities and influences beyond the home, Mrs. Robert Wilson said the family will not and cannot remain isolated or complete within itself. The family that is stable and secure within itself does much to strengthen the lives of neighbors and friends she added, using the experiences of Pearl Buck with relation to her mother.

Mrs. Cecil Hardaway, in discussing the home and other relationships, spoke of the parent's interest in the school, their obligation to the community in which they live, and their relationship to the world, and decreasing interest in and respect for the Sabbath day.

Mrs. Burkhardt told of the changes in family life through the centuries and how the home had been affected. Despite the changes that come, we know that the home will survive, as long as the world stands, she added.

Members joined in the open discussion of questions posed by Mrs. Jay.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Joe E. Ford, Mar. 1, at 2 p.m.

Heard by the grape vine that Fred Turner wasn't feeling too well, Mrs. Chucky Brown is in Hamlin Hospital but was feeling much better Saturday afternoon when I visited with her. Mrs. Dan Kidd was in good spirits when I saw her also on Saturday.

Visiting in the Med Herron home over the weekend was their grandson. He also attended Sunday School and church with them. I believe he lives in Dublin.

There is some remodeling going on in our little town. The Lawlises bought the Gray house and remodeled; the Blackie Fords have had some remodeling done to their home; the Guy Mauldins have had some remodeling done; and the W. B. Browns and Floyd McCain's are planning on having work done real soon.

We are so very thankful that Ray Douglas wasn't seriously hurt Saturday night when due to the fact that a truck driver didn't dim his lights he ran into the back of a pick up being towed by another pick up. Ray was bruised and has a cut or two and none of the other people were injured so we feel a relief for all of them when we stop to think what all could have happened.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown spent Sunday afternoon in Sweetwater in the Prather home.

These awards vary from medals for local chapter winners to a $1,000 cash award for the Star Farmer of America. In addition to the awards provided by the National FFA Foundation many organizations and companies also provide awards for FFA members.

Awards available on the local level for chapter members come from the National FFA Foundation or are sponsored by C. L. Howard, the Stamford Electric Cooperative, or the local Chapter.

Awards from the National Foundation include medals for the Star Green Hand, Star Chapter Farmer, poultry farming, livestock farming, farm mechanics, public speaking, and home improvement. Howard, local druggist and Honorary Chapter Farmer of the Hamlin Chapter, provides medals for swine farming, beef farming, rabbit farming, chapter leadership, and chapter scholarship.

Leadership Training Is Primary Aim of FFA Through Contests

The primary aim and purpose of the FFA is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The Hamlin FFA Chapter works hard to give its members leadership training. One of the first leadership activities each year is the annual officer training school conducted by a chapter advisor. This helps each chapter officer learn the duties and responsibilities of his office. This year all six chapter officers attended the three-day school held at the West Coke County Park in Robert Lee. Other chapter members also receive leadership training. All members are urged to participate in the leadership contests and all members enrolled in a class of vocational agriculture are given training in parliamentary procedure. This year the chapter entered five teams in the Stamford District FFA Leadership Contests. Members of the district winning senior chapter conducting team were Mike Brown, Gil Lain, Bob Clifton, Ronnie Nelson, John Hick, Riekey Acklin, and Randy George. This team went on to place second in the Area II contests. Other members participating in the district leadership contests were Mike Owen, Doug Elliott, Don Bockman, David Mullings, Edward Johnson, Mike Acklin, and James Holt in junior chapter conducting; Troy Early, Leldon Clifton, and Dale Pritchard in senior farm skills; Mark Madden, Dwayne Miller, and Duane Fry in farm radio, and Doug Elliott, Edward Johnson, Don Bockman and David Mullings in the FFA quiz. The chapter also provides leadership training for members by sending them to various district, area, and state meetings. Approximately twenty different boys will attend district meetings, the Area II FFA Convention, the Texas State FFA Convention, and the National FFA Convention this year. Members often learn more about meeting people and getting along with people at these meetings than they do in the classroom. It is at these

FFA Students Learn by Doing In Supervised Farming Program

A supervised farming program is a requirement of all boys enrolled in a class of vocational agriculture. A well-rounded supervised farming program will consist of productive enterprises, improvement projects, and supplementary farm jobs.

The productive enterprise is commonly called a project by the boys. To have a productive enterprise a boy must be engaged in some form of productive agriculture — the raising of agricultural products. Members of the Hamlin Chapter will have a variety of productive enterprises each year. Usually the leading projects will be beef production, swine production, cotton production, and wheat production. Other projects will include milo production, broiler production, rabbit production, and gardening. Many of the livestock projects are divided into either breeding projects or feeding projects. Chapter members show several thousand dollars earned from their productive enterprises.

Improvement projects are a series of jobs done to improve the appearance or sale value of the home. These may range from home beautification projects to building a farm building. Other examples of home improvement projects include building fences, re-painting farm buildings, re-decorating a room in the home, improving or building a farm shop, and keeping records for a year on a herd of beef cattle or swine.

Supplementary farm jobs are done by students in order to learn how to perform a skill or to improve his efficiency at performing the skill. Typical examples would include vaccinating livestock, branding livestock, castrating livestock, treating livestock for a disease, dehorning livestock, pruning or grafting trees, grooming livestock, and small repair jobs around the home or farm. The chapter participates in two programs that aid boys in developing supervised farming programs. These are the Hamlin BCD Heifer Chain and The Sears Foundation program. At the present time seven chapter members are engaged in the BCD program. They are Mike Brown, Gil Lain, Hollis Stephens, Mike Young, Don Bockman, Spencer Ford, and Bill Hodnett. They are given a heifer and raise her until she is a cow and has a calf. They then return a heifer to another boy who begins his beef production project.

Bill Hodnett, James Holt, and Milton Jordan are participating in the Sears Foundation program. They receive a registered gilt and after the gilt has her first litter they return a gilt to the chapter. The chapter then places the gilt with another boy.

FFA Chapter Has Three Projects for Scholarship

The Hamlin FFA Chapter has three projects to promote the scholastic improvement of its members. These are the FFA honor rolls, certificates of merit for scholarship, and the Chapter Scholarship award.

Two honor rolls are kept by the FFA. The first is posted each six weeks and is posted on class bulletin boards. The second is a semester honor roll and is brought up to date at the close of each semester. A member may make the honor roll by having an "A" average in vocational agriculture or by having an "A" or a "B" average for all subjects.

Each year the chapter presents certificates of merit to all members who maintain an overall average of ninety or above for all subjects. The certificates are presented each year at the Chapter's Father-and-Son Banquet.

The Chapter Scholarship award is also presented at the Father-and-Son Banquet. To win the chapter scholarship medal a member must have the highest scholastic standing of all FFA members.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — State attention continues to center on the embattled Texas Liquor Control Board.

Speaker Ben Barnes appointed a special subcommittee from the House State Affairs Committee to study possible changes in the election laws. Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria, committee chairman, also heads the subcommittee. Other members are Reps. James Slider of Naples, Bill Clayton of Springlake, Cletus Davis of Houston and Roy Garwood of San Antonio.

Cory stressed that the committee will not investigate Board operations. It will look into the cumbersome liquor laws which have not been modernized since they were first adopted in 1935. Chairman Cory says the panel will be ready with its recommendations (which conceivably could include legalization of liquor-by-the-drink sales) "whenever Governor Connally calls a special session of the Legislature."

LCB itself has drafted a set of recommendations which include the provision that no private clubs, veterans or fraternal organization can serve liquor over the bar in dry areas without local-option election approval.

A veteran lawman, O. N. (Newt) Humphreys Jr., was chosen by the Board to take the vacant job as assistant to Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. Humphreys, 43, is a native of Brenham. His father was chief of police there. The new LCB assistant chief has been with the Texas Department of Public Safety since 1948 and for 11 years has been head of its intelligence division.

His selection led to speculation that the LCB might in a few months move Humphreys up to administrator. But Stevenson said that he has no intention of resigning while the agency is under fire.

In a unique way, the LCB situation got involved in the governor's race. Lieut. Gov. Preston Smith was critical of the decision by Barnes to name a special committee. Then Eugene Locke of Dallas, one of Smith's opponents in the Governor's race, said the liquor laws obviously need revision and that Smith should have provided leadership toward that end.

Gov. John Connally's declaration that state legislators have been involved in "influence peddling" efforts with Stevenson, and his refusal to grant special treatment kept his salary down, led to some checking.

A study of the appropriations laws for the past 10 years shows that Stevenson's salary was generally held to about $4,000 less than those of comparable department heads. It was only last Sept. 1 that his salary was brought to within $1,000 of two other agency heads.

SPECIAL SESSION TALKS — With all the 1968 candidates now on the line and campaigns still in low gear, favorite capital speculation is the date of the upcoming special legislative session.

Governor Connally must call one in order to pass a 1969 budget and a new tax bill. This has to be done before September 1, start of the next fiscal year. Otherwise, there will be no money for continuation of state services.

Big question is when?

It has been widely assumed that Connally will wait until around June 3 when the primary elections will be over.

Since the governor said that he may ask legislators to consider liquor-by-the-drink legalization and conflict-of-interest curbs, speculation on the session's date has flared anew. It is felt that he may have an earlier date in mind, like maybe March 4. Senate Secretary Charles Schnabel "predicted" this starting time in a Valentine Day letter to senators. Later he said he wrote with "tongue in cheek" and wasn't really serious.

Arguments run something like this:

FOR JUNE — Legislators won't vote for a big tax bill with elections staring them in the face, and will resent having campaigns interrupted. Early session would put friends as well as foes on the spot and might result in defeat of some. Lawmakers are reluctant to vote for tax measures until the last minute, anyway; and along about July and August, they can't put it off any longer.

FOR MARCH — After their election lame duck legislators would be rebellious toward any tax program or other controversial measures submitted by the governor. More time might be needed to pass a major tax bill than would be allowed by a June session. New Democratic nominee for governor will be known by June, and the legislators may be inclined to look to him for leadership and ignore Connally's proposals.

Only man really in position to know is John Connally. He says he hasn't made up his mind — and might not for several weeks. But adds: "Any date is a possibility."

COURTS SPEAK — Texas

Supreme Court has held that: Cities should not license door-to-door insurance salesmen (in a case originating in Hillsboro.); City of Beaumont and its music commission are not responsible for injuries to a woman who fell while attempting to return to her seat at a concert in the city auditorium; Henderson County district court must consider a land vacancy claim; A jury trial must be held in an Amarillo man's suit against a railroad after the driver of a car in which he was a passenger crashed while trying to avoid hitting a train.

High court also agreed to hear arguments on March 27 in a San Antonio case involving a father's right to prevent a divorced wife from legally changing the name of their child.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the death penalty assessed 19-year-old Johnny Rudy Enriquez for murder of a Beeville nurse — one of five persons he was accused of slaying within six hours April 25, 1966. Trail of death extended from Corpus Christi, through Beeville and into Wilson County.

Cotton Pickin's

A spot check of 6 county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service shows that the first 1,438 producers to sign up for the 1968 cotton program will plant an average of 68 per cent of their cotton allotments.

Office managers of the six counties however were quick to point out to Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., who ran the survey, that this probably cannot be taken as an indication of final planting percentages. First, they note that this small number constitutes only about 25 per cent of the farmers in these counties.

They also theorize that producers who plan to divert the maximum 35 per cent of allotments are the ones most likely to sign up first.

Farmers can get their acreage diversion payments in advance if they so request at sign up time, and these advance payments will be larger for those who elect the highest diversion percentage.

Mandatory diversion in the 1968 program is only 5 per cent of allotments, therefore producers who choose that route are eligible for a very small advance payments.

For this reason most are expecting that the farmers signing up in the latter part of the period, which extends to March 15, will show a higher percentage who intend to plant the maximum allowable acreage.

The counties checked were Baylor, Cottle, Fisher, Jones, Taylor and Tom Green. Included were only those farmers who had completed signing up through February 14.

With producers in 1968 given option to plant anywhere from 65 to 95 per cent of the cotton allotments, cotton observers have estimated that between 75 and 85 per cent of the cotton acreage on the Rolling Plains will be planted. Many farmers are still undecided, and others will wait to sign up until near the March 15 deadline date.

A national cotton production of about 13.5 million bales will be needed this year to prevent losses to synthetic fibers in domestic markets and to foreign cotton in export channels. The 1966 crop was only 9.5 million bales and the 1967 crop totaled about 7.4 million, smallest in the 20th century.

If an adequate supply can be grown this year, the other major requirements of a healthy cotton economy seem to be within the capability of a united industry.

But it will be too late to recapture markets lost as a result of an inadequate supply. Many of these markets would be lost forever.

This could be a turning point in cotton's roller-coaster history!

the TAP pipeline in the Middle East again has zoomed demand for Texas oil.

Railroad Commission increased February oil production allowable from 47 to 49.6 per cent of potential, retroactive to February 1.

Commission set March factor at the same level, responding to demand by producers.

New allowable will permit maximum production of 3,732,485 barrels a day, compared with 3,588,958 under 47 per cent factor.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — State Department of Public Welfare is required to make "medicaid" payments direct to doctors and hospitals for medical care of welfare recipients, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

In other recent opinions, Martin held that: Public junior colleges are local educational agencies, providing "public free" secondary education at public expense and subject to public supervision and direction; and the State Insurance Commissioner does not have authority to approve an amendment to an insurance company's charter which, in effect, transforms it into a commercial corporation required to have a charter from the Secretary of State.

Let Him take over the wheel. He doesn't promise smooth sailing all the time, but He promises to guide us through the storm, and show us the way over calm and sweet but sometimes marker-less seas.

"And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not."

Isaiah 58:11

Who is at the Helm?

Who guides our lives? Are we a ship without a helmsman? Are we adrift, going no place?

Thanks be to God, who loves us so, He is willing to guide us, to show us the way over all manner of seas. How glorious to know there is such a One! All of us follow someone, some standard, but the true standard is God and His Word.

Let Him take over the wheel. He doesn't promise smooth sailing all the time, but He promises to guide us through the storm, and show us the way over calm and sweet but sometimes marker-less seas.

Isaiah 58:11

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
